SILHOUETTES OF OUR PAST

FOREWORD

*Although our days in Red Lion
Area High School are ending and we can never relive the past,
we have tried to recapture in this book one year,
the memories of which we shall treasure in our hearts forever. In so doing, we have also recorded many activities of our underclassmen friends who have shared greatly in making this the best year possible.
So with unique photographs,
art work, and writings, the seniors of '56 will now draw the curtain of time and reveal our final achievement—the little book you are now holding,
"Silhouettes of Our Past."*

ADMINISTRATION

*Supervising Principal
Red Lion Area School*

Although the busiest of men, Mr. DAN B. KULP, B.S., M.A., seems to find time in his after-school hours to take an active part in various community projects.

BUSY BEAVERS of the office—alumnae Mrs. Jeannette Trout, Mrs. Arlene Gilbert and Miss Norma Herbst, carry on the endless secretarial tasks of the school—checking daily attendance, managing general financial matters, typing letters and schedules, as well as the many other routine jobs of school secretaries.

A NEW SERVICE has been added to the area's school system this year—the Home and School Visitor, Mr. Martin F. Miller, who at present will concentrate chiefly on reducing the number of cases of attendance irregularities by direct investigation of the cases. It is he who finds the answers for students having school or general social problems. Engaged in a friendly chat, probably about football, Mike Bupp feels at ease with Mr. Miller, who finds time in his busy schedule to meet many of the students individually.

Proud of the many years he has been affiliated with his alma mater, Mr. EDGAR C. MOORE, B.S. has the knack of keeping things moving in the right direction throughout the school year.

Four Short Happy Years . . .

1953 . . . We recall many happy memories—the winning pep parade float, the first Heart Hop. Our sophomore year proved quite a success, especially the party get-together. A second victory was acquired for our winning float. Participating in drama for the first time, sponsoring the Valentine dance, and enjoying the prom were treats awarded to us as juniors, plus the float trophy, making us a three-time winner. 1955-1956, SENIORS. Came the fast fleeting days, a memorable year, bringing the play, the prom, class day, and finally, commencement.

SENIOR ADVISORS, Miss Helen Clevenger and Mr. Freeland Shaffer, serving for the eleventh and fourth years respectively, having an informal discussion about some of the coming events of the Class of '56.

RED LIONS FULLBACK, Dennis Warner, gaining six or seven yards, straightarms a would-be Dallastown tackler in an attempt to break away.

A BEAUTIFUL TACKLE by Solanco, but the wrong man, as Myles Gipe gives ball to Sitler who carries it around right end.

... Who

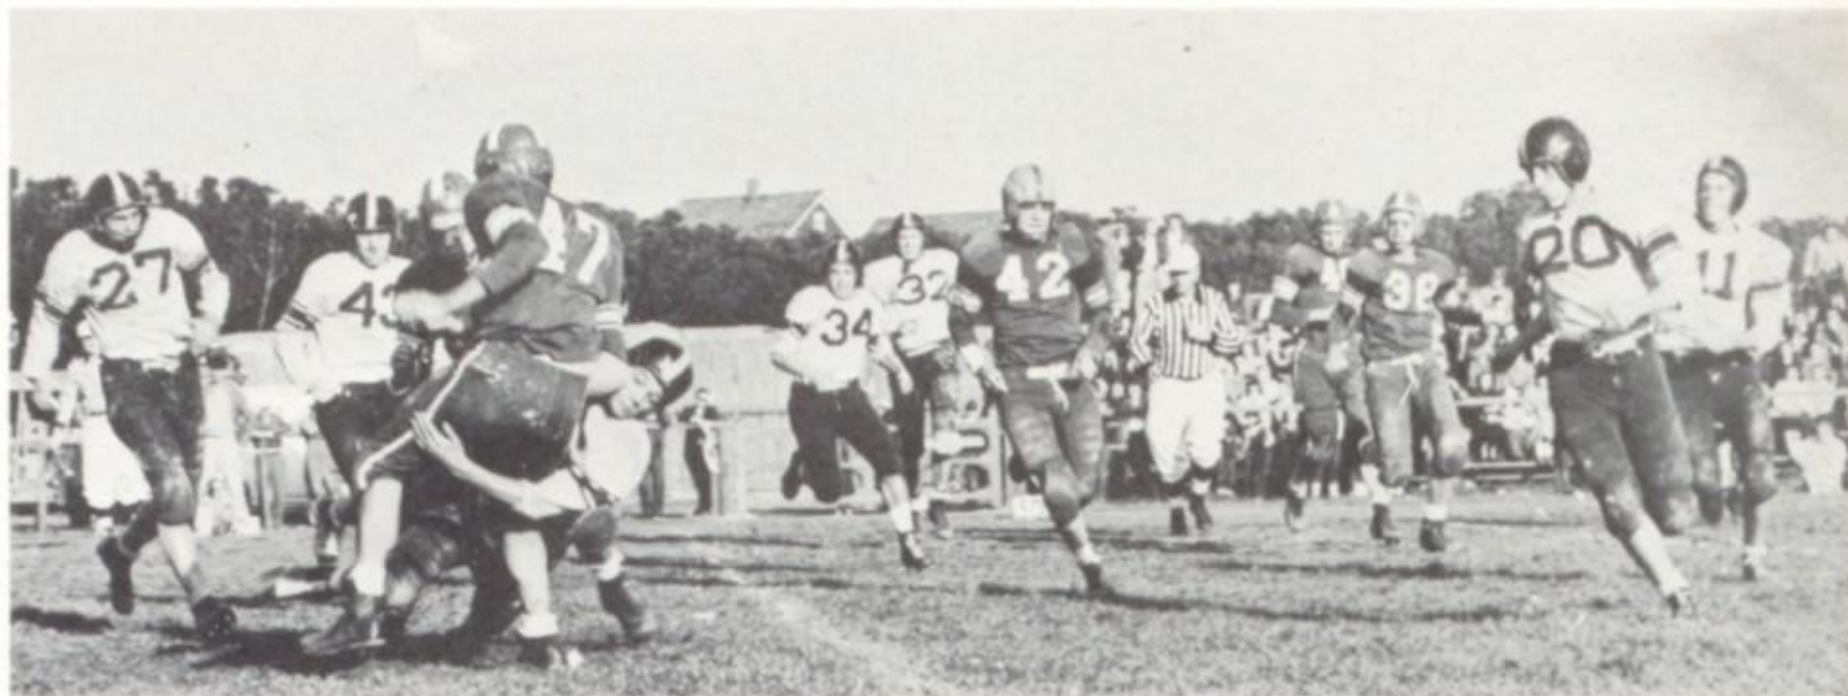

Truly

Deserve ...

In the sweltering heat of mid-August the FOOTBALL candidates made the long trek to the field twice daily. Later, practices were cut to one a day. Hard work was rewarded, however, the Lions winning five consecutive games, defeating Warwick Union, Susquehanna Twp., Manheim Twp., Dallastown and Solanco, before dropping games to Ephrata and Columbia. Red Lion came back, defeating the Laurel Conference champions, Littlestown. Tied by Elizabethtown, Red Lion, the underdog, defeated West York 26-0, a memorable closing feat.

A BIG PILEUP, and more players piling on as Gipe is brought down by a host of Bulldog tacklers in the annual West York game.

BRINGING DOWN a West York runner, Red Lion's defensive halfback, Lonnie Barnhart, does his bit as other Red Lion players close in.

Congratulations . . .

A FEROCIOUS LION is Grover Artman as he receives a pass in the game with our arch-rival, West York.

THE NINTH STRAIGHT successful conversion kick was chalked up for Artman in this Solanco game.

WORKING TOGETHER for a fifth straight victory, Spencer Seaks attempts to help Gipe pick up a few more yards by blocking out a Solanco player.

... And Applause

WORTHY of no less than the highest of praise for the numerous hours of time and patience they devoted to make the '55 football season a fine one are head coach, Frederick Sample, and his assistants, Leon Kurlansik and Ronald Fitzkee.

RED LION'S NUMBER 23, tailback Myles Gipe, goes for a short gain against the Bulldogs in the annual season-ending game with West York.

Shooting

Early December found the Lions getting off to a slow start dropping their first three league contests to Eastern, Kennard-Dale, and Central. However, with the right foot forward, they came back to win three consecutive games with Susquehannock, Dover, and Dallastown. Misfortune struck again when Red Lion lost five straight before downing Northern for their fourth win. J.V. and Junior High squads were on the move winning a majority of their games.

In the spring many young TRACK hopefuls made the trip to the athletic field where coach Sample helped them perfect their running, jumping, and throwing. A fine team emerged winning victories over Central and Kennard Dale in the first and second meets of the season. Next came the meet with the Crimson Tide of Columbia where Red Lion lost, the only time all season! A high spirited team made the trip to the York County Meet and brought the trophy home to Red Lion. Showing the same form that brought them the championship, the Lions defeated their bitter rival, Dallastown, to bring the season to a close.

Another spring sport in Red Lion Area High School is VOLLEYBALL. Having just a few weeks of practice, the Lions journeyed to York Junior College to participate in the District 3 Volleyball Tournament when Red Lion defeated Manchester and Dover before being eliminated by losing to Manchester and York High. The record, although not very outstanding, gave the team encouragement to keep trying.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Quite a memorable year goes on record for 186 up-and-coming JUNIORS nearing the peak in high school life, that of becoming seniors. Reviewing the year's new ventures, many may recall how eagerly they participated in so many activities: being Hilltop apprentices, sponsoring the Valentine dance, presenting their first play; the excitement of experiencing their own prom, and their breathless anxiety upon receiving the scepter from the seniors on class day. Finally, all minds turn to more serious thoughts of challenging vocations, prospective colleges, and future plans in general.

SCHEDULING ACTIVITIES for the year's events for the juniors are their advisors, Misses Jeannette Espenshade and Marie Keepers.

Losing no time "getting down to brass tacks" the SOPHOMORES quickly rolled up their sleeves and joined all the new activities and classes available to them in senior high—took part in numerous assembly programs, and started journalism preparation. They carried their share of the many high school responsibilities.

Red Lion's Great . . .

BEAUTY AT ITS BEST—Dawn Burg, Sybil Stump, her majesty, Maxine Weiser, and Sandra Fix, comprising the queen's court.

In observance of seventy-five years of incorporation, the citizens of Red Lion staged the gigantic DIAMOND JUBILEE celebration throughout the week of June 12-18, 1955. To add charm to the event, five girls were chosen for their beauty and talent to reign as queen and court. Not since the Golden Anniversary has there been such a spectacle as the four-mile parade, closing the festivities, and attracting 50,000 spectators. The school pageant, "Recollections"; homecomings; baton twirling, and the many industrial exhibits will long be remembered.

The comic thriller, "Ramshackle Inn," the JUNIOR PLAY, 1955, concerns an old maid librarian who saved her money for 20 years, in order to buy a hotel. She purchases a tumble-down place near the ocean, and gets just what she bargains for—plus a great deal more.

She encounters ghosts, secret trunks, mysterious situations, the living and the dead, and somehow manages to emerge at the end none the worse for her extraordinary experience.

Domestic "Laffs"

Inspired by the Mother Goose rhyme, "The Little Dog Laughed," the class of '56 chose to produce the SENIOR PLAY of the same title. In this delightful comedy, Laurie, just home from college, tries to "psychologize" her friends and relatives which develops into an uproar with jumble blocks, energy peaks, and the Zombrowski Ink Blot Test. All finally halts and the family retains its normal life.

QUITE PUZZLED by Laurie's unusual antics, Martha, enacted by Lois Andrews, wonders just what to do next in order to have peace.

Last April 28 Red Lion Area High School was host to approximately 186 eighth grade students from surrounding area schools. The occasion was the annual ORIENTATION DAY. National Honor Society members guided groups on explorations of the rooms and halls and visited classes in session. The out-of-towners also were enlightened on the school's curricula and social activities. An assembly program followed with plenty of time intervening to meet new friends.

Barrymores in the Making

Promising actors get their start as their talents are brought to light each Thursday morning in DRAMATIC CLUB. Divided into groups, each headed by a captain, they put on various skits for the club members. An assembly was staged to give the student body an idea of their accomplishments. They may never become actors, but they will have gained much from this experience.

SCHEDULING CASTS for dramatic club presentations is group leader, Betty Jane Laucks, assisted by Mr. Baldwin, faculty adviser for the organization.

MAGIC CLUB—FIRST: Dean Bahn, Richard Heffner, Dale Alloway, Ray Boyd. SECOND: Galen Baker, Titus Geesey, Dallas Hoffmaster, Donald Dietz, Robert Rollman, Dennis Strayer. THIRD: Clair Patterson, Preston Herbst, William Fauth, Ned Grove, Marvin Deardorff, Billy Anderson. FOURTH: Donald Gipe, Terry Grove, Ronald Robinson, Armand Conaway,

Contemporary Black Magic

LATEST MYSTIFYING TRICKS are performed first hand by Mr. Miller, club adviser, before the magic organization. He seems to have accomplished his feat.

Clever hands perform more quickly than the eye can see when these amateur magicians practice during each weekly MAGIC CLUB period. Under the expert supervision of Mr. Miller, they soon learn many tricks which are "top secret" and with which they amaze their family, friends, and schoolmates.

STAGE CREW: Eric Landis, Barry Smeltzer, Robert Breckenridge, Larry Baker, James Dotts, John Shaeffer, Marlin Lloyd, John Yinger, Charles Wilhelm.

Theatrical Maintenance Men

Unnoticed, but very necessary to the production of all plays, was the STAGE CREW. They were responsible for props, lighting, sound effects, and many other things. The boys contributed a great deal to each presentation.

LARRY ON THE SPOT, the fellow who creates the eerie atmosphere or cloaks the stage in multishades of color for all school drama.

Teen-age Shutter Bugs

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB boys are found so often at the strangest places catching an unusual activity and recording it forever just by a press of the finger.

PINPOINT FOCUS every time is the aim of Marvin Knudson, who by all means, is now a "pro" at enlarging those treasured yearbook snaps.

"DON'T YOU UNDERSTAND," says Neil Bailey, "this is the best grade of paper for the pictures." But grinning Ron Leiphart is unwilling to yield.

LIBRARY CLUB—FRONT: Kay Ann Miller, Jean Ann Eberly, Sandra Dietz, Joyce Dixon, Carolyn Hake, Susan Conn, Nettie Leik, Donna Overmiller, Faye Godfrey, and Nancy Pfeiffer.
SECOND: Beverly Briggs, Mrs. Shermeyer, Janice Barshinger,

Book Keepers

ARRANGING WORDS to be displayed on the library bulletin board is taken care of by Kay Smith, a member of the Library Club. Girls in background take inventory as just another chore.

Repairing books, stamping cards, and helping with inventory are but a few of the duties of the LIBRARY CLUB. Each year a tea is held for the girls' parents, and this year for the first time they staged an assembly. Credit also goes to these girls for the decorative bulletin boards in the library.

PLANNING CLEVER SLOGANS for the school presentations is the task of the Advertising Club. Patty Hall, left, appears to be on the verge of an inspiration. Helen DeShong and Beverly Hivner are busy sketching.

Keeping the school well informed of forthcoming events was the duty of the ADVERTISING CLUB. This group cheerfully designed and distributed posters to publicize plays, sporting events, dances and various other activities. Miss Espenshade is the sponsor of this club.

A SUCCESSFUL KNEE STAND is accomplished by these girls of the tumbling club. Below: Five girls perfecting the difficult fan formation.

Lithe Spirits

Off to a fine start, the GIRLS' TUMBLING CLUB, newly organized, was soon performing some very difficult stunts. These girls could be seen flying through the air, with the aid of a springboard, or merely assisting one another with a simple (?) backroll.

The Well-Developed Physique

Strong muscles and healthy bodies were brought about by the TUMBLING CLUB. This group went past the ordinary gym class exercises and soon performed many more difficult feats. The feeling of pride, after accomplishing a new stunt, was well worth the time spent.

CAUGHT IN THE AIR by our photographer, Harold Anderson receives assistance from Gary Shultz and Ned Stump while attempting a swift turn.

"WALTZ ME AGAIN, LINDA," quails Ruth as they begin to dance a second time during a Thursday morning's dancing club session.

A new organization just started this year was the VARSITY CLUB. Its members included all players who had received their varsity letters. The purpose of the group was to offer service to the school by promoting better sportsmanship, enthusiasm, and participation in athletics among students, faculty and alumni.

CLARIFYING A FORMATION for two puzzled associates of the Varsity Club, Keith Deardorff and Don Kenney, is Mr. Sample, a "pro" at such things.

Latest addition in the way of activities was the AUTOMOTIVE CLUB. This organization catered to the auto fans, giving them a chance to become better acquainted with the modern automobile. It also tried to promote good driving conduct and explain the mechanisms of today's engines.

"THERE'S A PING here somewhere," detects Karl, as four members of the Automotive Club check over the engine.

BETTER DRIVING HABITS are being explained to Karl Schaefer by Mr. Kurlansik.

CLASS DAY, finale for the '55 seniors, the time to say farewell to high school life and bid welcome to the class of '56 who formally are installed as seniors. Receiving the traditional scepter from the senior head, Glenn Kinard, is junior president, Myles Gipe.

Moments to Remember

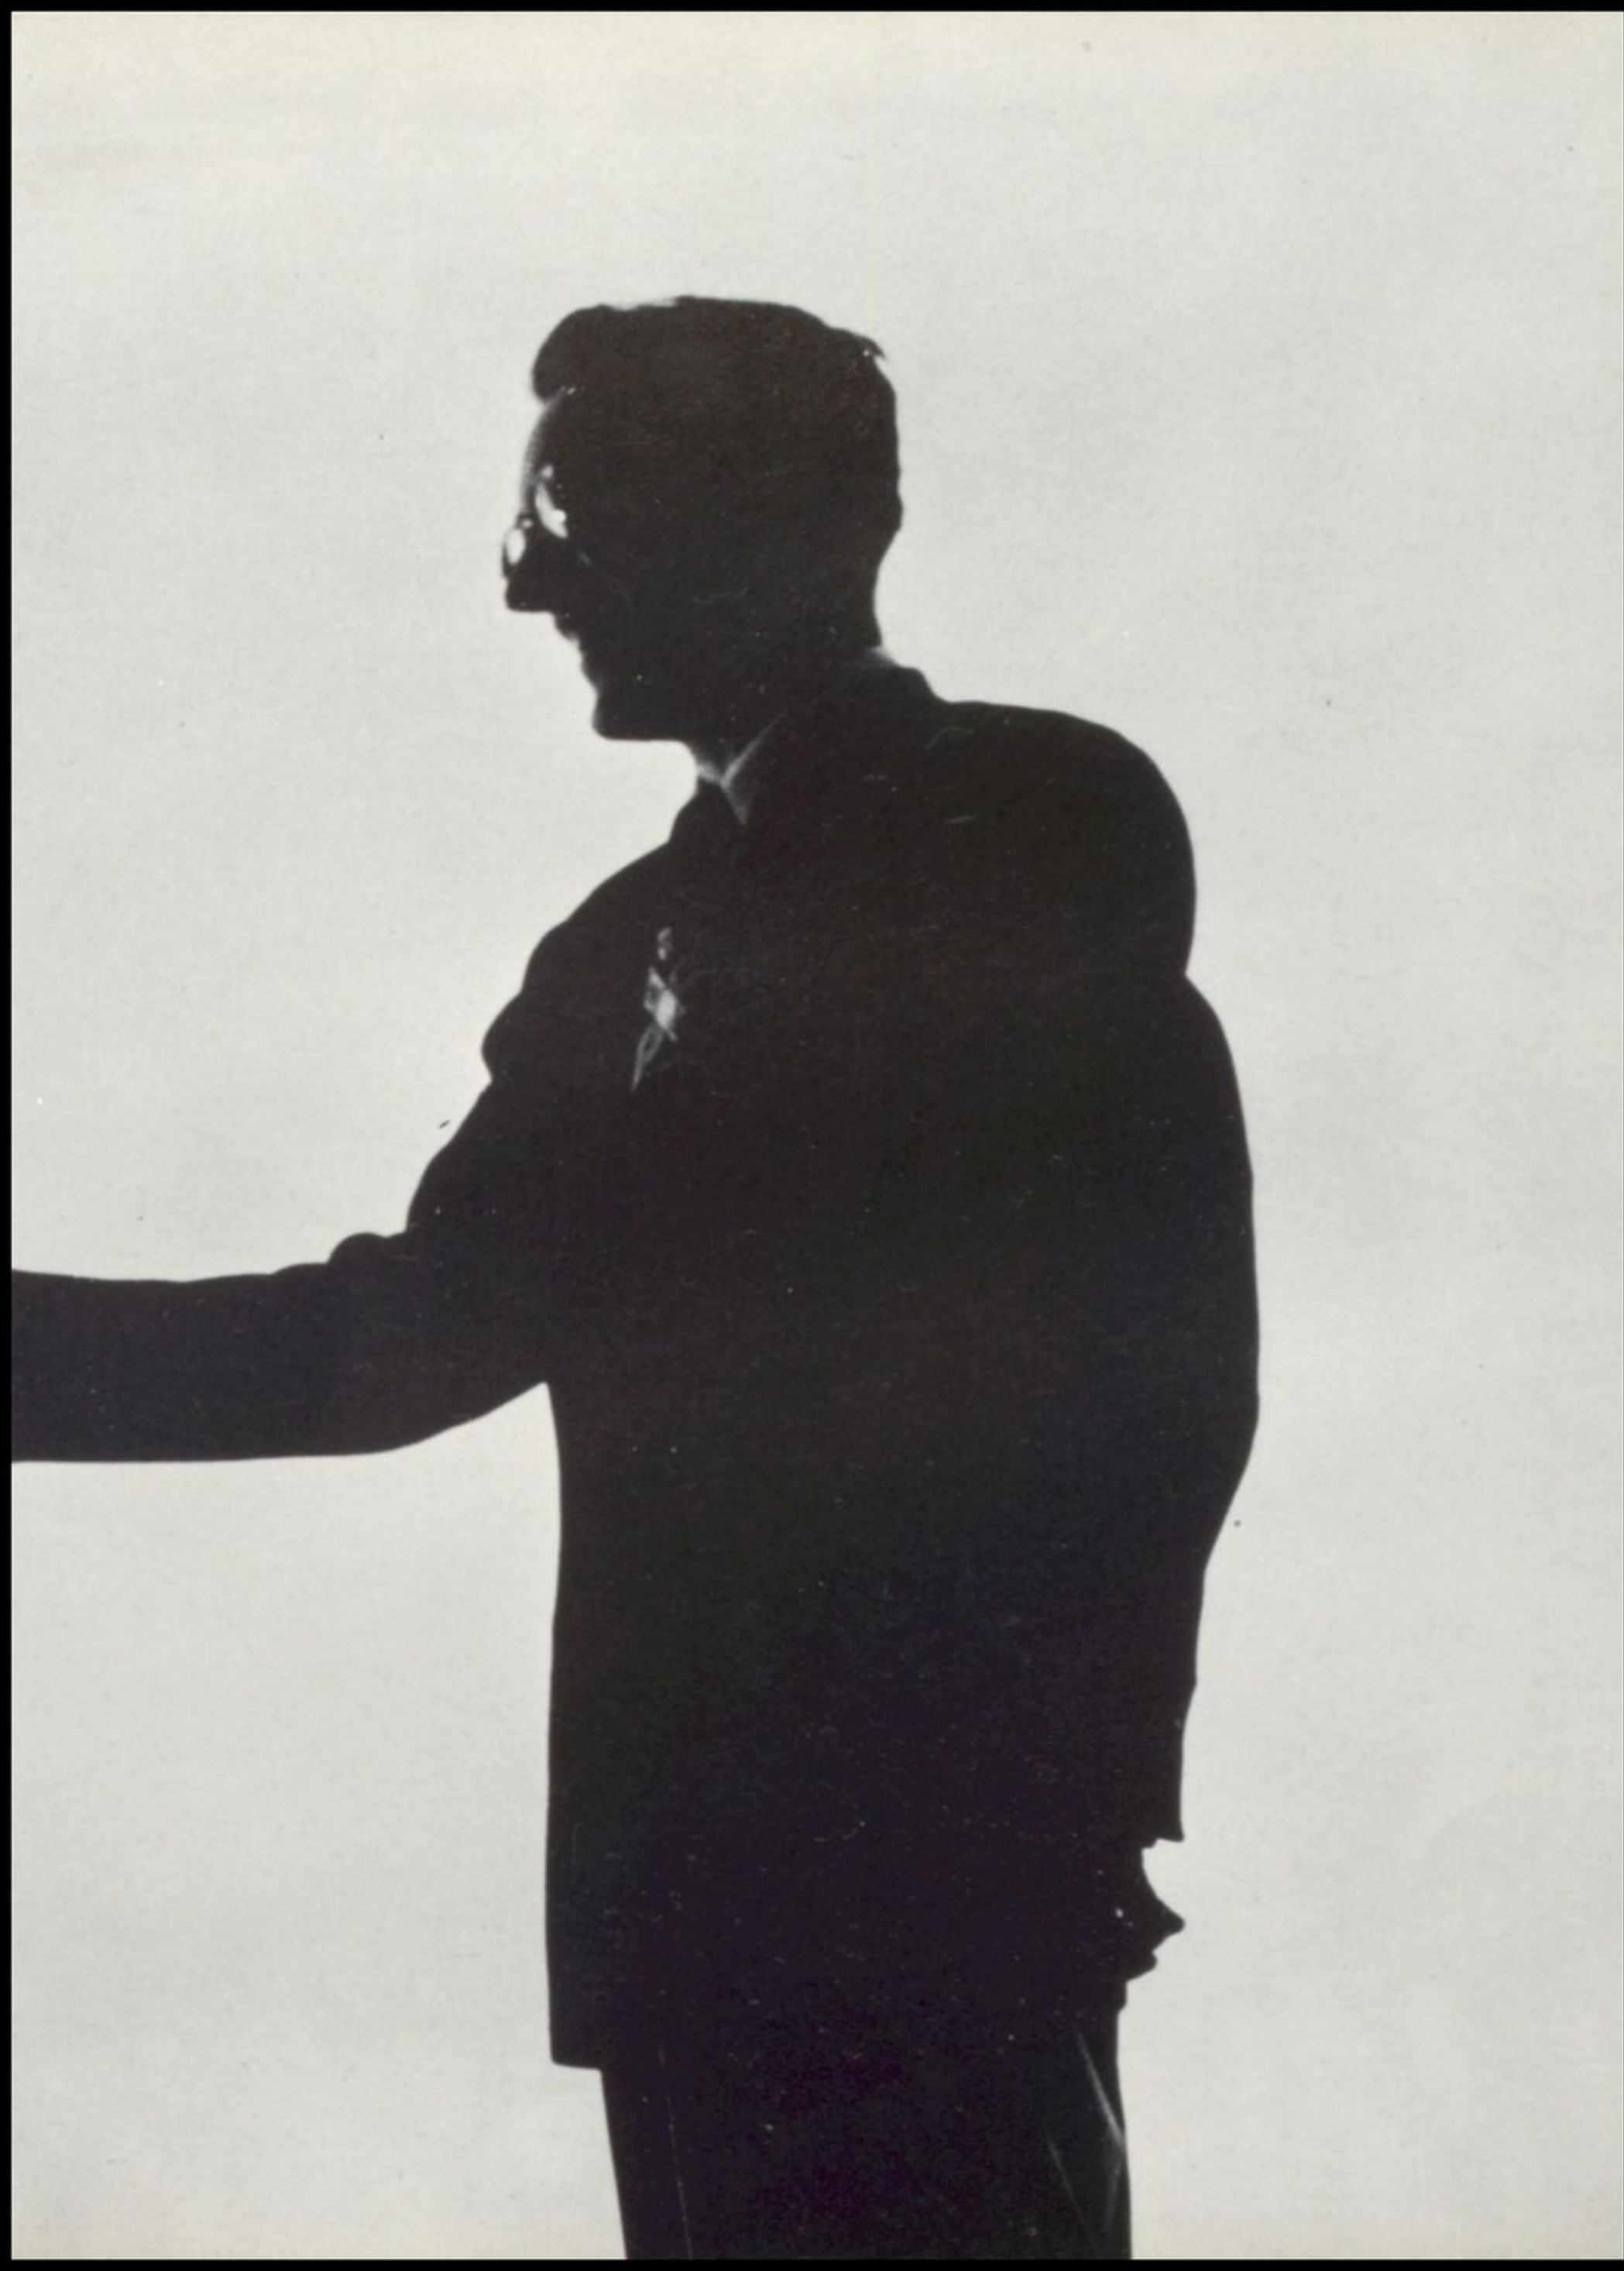

THE PROM, a night to end all nights, when the seniors attend their last and most memorable dance. Not one person present can escape being pierced by the melancholy atmosphere which accompanies the enchanting decor and lilting strains of the melodious music.

AN IMPORTANT MILESTONE in the lives of all those who "entered to learn"—Baccalaureate services, preceding commencement, when the time comes to "leave to serve." Here the procession of seniors is being arranged to begin the Sunday vespers.
